

Communion Service at the Indresam church - Feet washing

This was very touching. The little boy is washing his father's feet. His father had a stroke a year ago and he is doing much better now..

Pastor Chitti Babu giving the bread.

Pastor Chitti Babu passing out the grape juice.

We were so happy to see the people being blessed with a communion service and to see how prayerfully they participated in the service. May God be praised!